— Journal of the American Medical Association, 1977, 237: 1211-1212

Handwritten text in Arabic script, likely a manuscript or letter. The text is written in a cursive style and spans multiple lines across the page. There are two prominent dark circular marks, possibly holes or ink blots, located near the center of the page.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely Persian or Urdu, covering the main body of the page. The text is arranged in approximately 12 horizontal lines. There are some ink blots and a small circular hole in the center of the page.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or letter. The text is written in a dark ink on aged, slightly discolored paper. It appears to be a continuous paragraph or a series of lines of correspondence. The script is fluid and characteristic of 18th or 19th-century handwriting. There are some ink blots and variations in line thickness, suggesting it was written by hand. The text is organized into several lines, with some lines starting with capital letters or specific markers. The overall appearance is that of a well-preserved but aged manuscript.

2. 2000

Handwritten text or signature located in the middle left section of the page, below the first few lines of the main text.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a manuscript. The text is written in a single column and appears to be a continuous passage. The script is dense and flowing, characteristic of historical cursive handwriting. There are several large, dark ink blotches or holes visible in the middle of the page, which may be due to damage or intentional markings. The text is written on aged, slightly discolored paper.

Handwritten marginal note in the top right corner.

Main body of handwritten text in a cursive script, consisting of approximately 10 lines. The text is densely written and covers most of the page area.

11. 12. 13.

1. The first part of the paper is devoted to the study of the asymptotic behavior of the solutions of the system (1) as $t \rightarrow \infty$. It is shown that the solutions of the system (1) tend to zero as $t \rightarrow \infty$ if and only if the matrix A is stable. The proof of this theorem is given in the Appendix.
